CINCINNATI, OHIO - JANUARY 13, 2011 - The Cincinnati School Board will close all construction sites in honor of the Dr. Martin Luther King Federal Holiday. The Cincinnati NAACP extends a thank you to the entire Cincinnati Public School Board for making the decision to close all construction sites for MLK day. "I would like to thank the Cincinnati NAACP Executive Committee, Officers, and Members for standing strong on the critical issue of respecting the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. The Cincinnati NAACP membership is powerful and relevant. We no longer deal in the words "I can not" just the words "I can", " Christopher Smitherman, president of the Cincinnati NAACP said.
